INDICTED.

R. M. Hargrove, a Prominent Citizen of Graves County.

There is another chapter in the Maud Stovall case in Graves county. It will be remembered that last spring a young woman named Maud Stovall disappeared from the Farmington section and her disappearance caused much talk in that community. She had been living with a Mr. Hargrove. Finally the Stovall woman appeared in Ballard county and she swore out a bastardy writ against Hargrove.

Thus the matter rested until the present term of the circuit court when an indictment was returned against Hargrove charging him with false swearing in connection with his testimony before the grand jury when an investigation was made into the disappearance of the Stovall woman. Hargrove has given bond, and it is asserted that the prosecution comes from persons in the community who have a spite against him.

The indictment created much excitement in Graves on account of the prominence of Hargrove.

Remedy for Lynching.

The failure of the authorities at Mayaville Ky., to take concerned action to punish the persons connected with the recent lynching at that place is in line with the custom following such episodes. It was through the negligence of the persons charged with the enforcement of the law that the episode occurred, and it is hardly to be expected that they would take stringent action against the persons who took advantage of the negligence.

No remedy for mob law has yet been devised which is effective in all instances. The remedy appears not to lie in punishing members of the mob. Public sentiment makes it impossible to punish these people, and in the vast majority of instances to punish the members of the mob would be to change into felons the men to whom the community owes its progress and prosperity. The prevention of mob law must be sought through other channels.

Goebel Smiles.

Frankfort, Dec. 9.—Mr. Goebel was apparently in the best of humor after being told that Taylor's certificate had been signed. He laughed and shook his head when asked if he had anything to say. "Not a thing; I am not talking. When will you make a contract? I have not decided yet, and I, of course cannot discuss what I do not know myself."

The defeated candidate is game to the end and if there is any humor no one knew it but himself.

THE Postmaster General in his report says that rural free delivery is being vigorously opposed by the saloon keepers, who find that when the farmer is not compelled to go to the village for his mail, he forgets and neglects his thirst.

GOV. BRADLEY declined to pardon a fool who was fined for betting that Brown would be elected Governor. A man who was idiotic enough to make such a bet should be sent to the feeble minded institute instead of being held legally responsible.

In 1896 only two New York dailies supported Bryan—the Journal and the Daily News. Next year according to the well informed Veratet, he will be supported by the Herald, World, Evening Post, Times, Journal, News, and the Brooklyn Eagle and Brooklyn Citizen. The only newspapers which will be strongly against him will be the Sun, Press, Commercial-Advertiser and the Mail and Express. The opposition of White-law Reid's Tribune will, it is said be lukewarm.

GOEBEL HEADS THE LIST.

Notwithstanding the extremely bitter fight that was made against Senator Goebel, he received 27,807 more votes than were ever cast for a Democratic candidate for Governor in Kentucky, and 47,163 more than were cast for John Young Brown in 1892. And it can be said that no candidate for Governor of Kentucky ever had such a fight made against him as that which was made against Senator Goebel. In the face of these facts and the further fact that he received 191,331 votes or 27,807 more than were cast for Mr. P. Wat Hardin in 1895, Mr. Goebel's enemies have not been able to convince many people of their oft-repeated assertion that he has no following among the people, but was purely the candidate of the politicians.

Come Forward

All persons indebted to C. A. Holcombe are notified that they must come forward and settle. Delays are dangerous. Verbum Sapienti.

AN exchange has figured that leaving out the vote of Jefferson county Taylor carried 59 counties and Goebel did likewise. Taylor's pluralities ranged from 2 in McLean county to 2,361 in Whitley; Goebel from 11 in Boyle to 2,261 in Kenton. Taylor carried nine counties by less than 100 and six by more than 1,000. Goebel carried eight by less than 100 and seven by more than 1,000.

CONFEDERATE RE-UNION IN LOUISVILLE.

Headquarters United Conf'd. Veterans, New Orleans, La., Dec. 9, 1899. General Orders No. 223.

1. The General Commanding announces that under the custom established by the Association, leaving the date of the next Annual Meeting and Re-union, which is to be held in the city of Louisville, Ky., to the General Commanding and the Department Commanders, by unanimous agreement, the next Re-union will be held on the following dates: May 30, 31 and June 1, 2 and 3, 1900, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday respectively, which dates have been submitted to "Our Host" and acquiesced in.

"On account of the rapid growth of the Association and the accumulation of important business which will be presented to the delegates for their consideration, and which will demand urgent attention at the coming Session, four days will be given for the Business Meeting, unless such matters are sooner disposed of; and as the grand old Commonwealth of Kentucky gave Mr. Jefferson Davis to the Confederacy, he having seen the light of day on the 3d day of June, 1803, at the spot where the Baptist Church of Fairview in what was Christian, now in Todd County, Ky., and as Sunday June 3d, 1900 will be the ninety-second anniversary of his birth, that day will be specially set apart for religious and memorial services to be held in memory of Mr. Davis. "The Daughters of the Confederacy," and of the thousands of our Peerless Soldiers and illustrious Commanders and Leaders of the Confederacy who have gone "to join the spectral armies encamped among the stars."

2. With pride the General Commanding also announces that 1349 Camps have now joined the Association and applications for organization papers received at these headquarters for about 200 more.

He urges veterans everywhere to send to these headquarters for organization papers, form Camps at once, and join this association, so as to assist in carrying out its benevolent, praiseworthy and patriotic objects.

By order of J. B. GORDON, General Commanding.

OBITUARY.

Died, at the family residence, in Sharon, Tenn., on November, 7th, '99, Mr. Mike Thomas, father of Mrs. Sallie Parham, near Hickman. Uncle Mike was a bright, gay old fellow. The idol of a fond wife. "Till and to think how lonely his wife will be without a kind husband's smiles. Let us look to him who doth all things well, and say: "Till will be done."

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-Five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line, Druggists.
